

FOR CHILD & FAMILY SPECIALISTS

ENGAGING ADOLESCENTS™

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR COMMUNITY & HEALTH PRACTITIONERS
WORKING TO RESOLVE ADOLESCENT BEHAVIOUR PROBLEMS

COURSE OUTLINE

- Define problematic behaviour, understand the common ground shared by parents, and learn which expectations are reasonable to hold about adolescents.
- Gain new understandings of adolescence about social landscapes, brain snaps and body makeovers.
- Learn how to recognize and sort behaviour before choosing an intervention method according to the provided decision-making flowchart and the “3 option model”.
- Receive easy-to-use techniques that parents and carers can use to enlist adolescents to manage their own behaviour and emotional reactions, to build a relationship with their teenager and strategies to deal with unacceptable behaviour.
- Get the tools you need to achieve the best outcomes for the families and teenagers you work with.
