

HUMAN RIGHTS AND OLDER PEOPLE

Wednesday
16 October
2024
11AM - 1PM

Purpose

In this workshop, you will explore what is meant by human rights and what this means for how you support and empower older people and their allies.

By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to:

- Describe fundamental entitlements ensuring dignity and equality.
- Identify laws guiding aged and community care for older Australians.
- Help older people and carers exercise their rights in care services.
- Train staff on human rights for older people and their carers.
- List groups that provide rights and advocacy information.
- Connect with colleagues for knowledge sharing.

REGISTER HERE!

Target Audience

Managers, team leaders, support co-ordinators and frontline staff working with older people.

For further information, please contact:

Eunice Sansour - South West Sydney SSDO
ssdo@tmn.net.au
M: 0451 172 653

Marina Antonas - Inner West Sydney SSDO
marina.antonas@eccnsw.org.au
M: 0408 490 011

Consultant:

Carrie Hayter
Managing Director

Carrie Hayter is a passionate advocate for the rights of people who use social care services with over 25 years of experience in the sector.

Click HERE for more information about Carrie Hayter and staff.

A DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND AGED CARE FUNDED INITIATIVE