

DAY OPTIONS

The Disability Trust day program activities have a strong focus on community participation and independent living skills training. We offer flexible support on weekdays and are involved in life skills development activities such as cooking, shopping and personal development. There are also regular day trips for activities that are appropriate to the individual's level of ability and goals such as swimming and bush walking.

We are currently have vacancies in our Canterbury location.

Address: 277 Canterbury Road, Canterbury.
